To whom it may concern,

Please consider this letter as a proof of our will as a supplier to provide a protection to the Green Sleep group.

As of now, April 16, 2013 we, Lamifoam SDN BHD will supply and protect the North America division of Green Sleep and provide our product solely to the licence Green Legacy in Québec, Canada.

This means that no other manufacturer in North America will be able to order the pure natural hevea latex core certified by the eco-institute that we produce. Our highest and purest quality product it is now reserve for Green Sleep in North America.

Yours Sincerely,

Eric Lee
Managing Director
